FOR MAYOR, JOHN JOHNSON

The Call on Mayor Johnson.

All persons having lists of the signatures of those who request Mayor Johnson to cally arranged to-morrow. Any name msy thus be instantly found, and the AP-PEAL containing the list may well be preserved for future reference. Those who have not and wish to sign this call, will at once send their names to this office.

No Mass Meeting.

Such is the popular unanimity in behalf of Mr. Johnson's re-slection that the contemplated mass meeting will not be held.

THE CALL UPON JOHN JOHNSON-

THE DULY OF THE HOUR. The attention of the convention, which meets to-day, is directed to the call pubform ayor. We understand the mayor majority. The popular masses have proaquabbles, and thereby contribute to the good name and prosperity of Memphis. If tives, it would good the enemies of Mayor Johnson, and strive to force a contest which would result to its advantage. But we are ready to sink our own interests for nimity which seems to pervade the pubof promoting harmony, the mass meeting, to which there was much objection, men, but the people of the North do not has been abandoned, and since it is so evident that the people desire to re-elect the present incumbent without the aid of any formal nomination, we trust the convention to-day will respect the popular elamor and avoid any act which will trangements and excitements, without resulting in any corresponding good to party, individuals or the prosperity of the
